

A THREAD THROUGH HISTORY

A Night At The Museum

Celebrate with us & experience the extraordinary World War II history exhibit, The Longest Yarn, that has arrived from Carentan, France to the Naval Air Station Wildwood Aviation Museum (NASW).

Join us in honoring “The Greatest Generation” on the 81st Anniversary of D-Day
Friday, June 6, 2025 | 6:00-8:00pm

Naval Air Station Wildwood Aviation Museum
500 Forrestal Road | Cape May, NJ 08204
Music by The John Walter Cape Community Band
Beer, Wine & Light Bites.

$50 per person donation or sponsorships are available.

Sponsorships: Operation Overlord $2000

(8 reception tickets - Exhibit Case Logo Sponsor, Social Media Promotion, Logo Placement On Website)

D-Day $1500

(6 reception tickets - Exhibit Case Logo Sponsor, Social Media Promotion, Logo Placement On Website)

Pegasus Bridge $1000

(4 reception tickets - Exhibit Case Logo Sponsor, Social Media Promotion, Logo Placement On Website)

101st Airborne $750

(2 reception tickets - Social Media Promotion, Company Name or Sponsorship Name on our Website)

Message Decoder $500

(2 reception tickets - Social Media Promotion)

<https://www.zeffy.com/ticketing/a-night-at-the-museum-3>
or Scan QR Code to purchase tickets

For more sponsorship information contact thelongestyarncmc@yahoo.com

With generous donations, like yours, the exhibit can continue on to other US destinations and its the return to France in 2026. ALL excess proceeds will be donated to local veteran charities in Cape May County.

www.thelongestyarncmc.com | thelongestyarncmc@yahoo.com

The Longest Yarn Cape May County The Longest Yarn, Cape May Knitters & Crocheters

The Longest Yarn Cape May County is a New Jersey 501(c)(3) not for profit organization